

Abstrac

Stability literature as a branch of social literature is a unique form of underertakes literature that plays a major and important role in organizing and encouraging that fighter people for deliverance and freedom. Reading poetry and prose works of world's literature suggests that long ago sample rather "evolved" had been written from thisgerre in the culture of different nations. Social and political distressed and unorganized conditions of nation have lead many poets to the themes of sustainability and of them we can pointed to Palestinian and Iranian poets like1234567890poiuhjk, Kamal Naser(1924- 1973) and Nasrollaah- e- Mardani(1326- 1383). The two poets were placed their art poetry and talent as ameans to illustrate the struggle of their people and watch of their country. Therefor, in this study relying on the descriptive and analytic methods and with the purpose of searching stability literature components in poetry of two mentioned poets, Tums to reading comparative stability components such as: Patriotism, fight aliens violator, Martyrdom, Freedom, hope for the future, sacrifice, etc. Finally, It will be specified the similarities and differences of the poets after addressing the concept of stability and andertake literature. Therefore, It can be said that in spite of some differences in the frequency and type of poems dealing with the stability literature, It will be observe the social and political conditions almost common cause in their songs.

Key words: persistence literature – comparative literature - Kamal Naser- Nasrollah Mardani.

Univesity of Zabol

Faculty of Letters and Humanities
Arabic Language and Literature
Department A Thesis Presened For
The Degree of Master of Art
In Arabic Language and Literature

Title:

The comparative survey of the elements of persistence literature in the poetries of Kamal Naser and Nasrollah Mardani.

Supervisore:

Dr.Ali Asghar.Habibi

Advisore:

Dr.Ali Akbar.Ahmadi Chenari

By:

Fatemeh Najibi

Jan 2016