

Abstract

Iran and Afghanistan are considered of Persian-speaking countries. The war is taken account of bitter events which it has been involved the people of both countries Iran and Afghanistan at some points of time. In this regard, Persian-speaking poets have got to the matter in the area of resistance literature. The research aimed to survey and to compare the resistance literature more and more in Iran and Afghanistan, assumed that resistance literature components are applied in Iranian and Afghan poets' poems. It has been tried to be surveyed the resistance literature components in Iranian and Afghanistan poets' poems in descriptive-analytical method I.e. Reza Esmaeili and Soudabe Amini and two Afghan poets i.e. Mohammad Kazem Kazemi and Zahra Hussein Zade. The components include items such as: martyr and martyrdom, premonition and warn the inconsiderate people to war, Ashoura event, awaiting the appearance and so on. The survey result represent that studying poets have had various approaches to resistance literature of which Iranian poets i.e. Reza Esmaeili and Soudabe Amini have had more approach to the subject of resistance literature. Undoubtedly, it has been achieved due to Reza Esmaeili and Soudabe Amini's husband's direct attendance in imposed war.

Keywords: Resistance literature, Iran contemporary poem, Afghanistan contemporary poem, Reza Esmaeili, Soudabe Amini, Mohammad Kazem Kazemi, Zahra Hussein Zade.

University of Zabol
Graduate school
Faculty of Humman Science
Department of Persian Language and Literature

The Thesis Submitted for the Degree of M.Sc
(in the field of Persian Language and Literature)

Examination of contemporary Iranian poetry and literature stability in Afghanistan (Reza Ismaili, S. Amini, Mohammad Kazem Kazemi, zahra Hussain Zada

Supervisor:
Dr. Ahmad Sanchooli

Advisor:
Dr. Alireza Mahmudi

By: Tayebeh Koochakzehi

2016